

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

QUIET, but interesting and beautiful home wedding took place yesterday, September 10, at 8 A. M., when Miss Mabel Osborne Hornor became the bride of Mr. Campbell Clay Jacob. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert H. Winfree in the parlors of the bride's home, and was witnessed only by members of the immediate families of the contracting parties.

Miss Bertha Hornor, sister of the bride, played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the advance was made to the altar. The parlor was beautifully decorated and the young couple took their stand while repeating their nuptial vows under a canopy of fragrant flowers and evergreens.

The bride, who is a lovely and cultured young lady, and the daughter of Mr. Minor C. Hornor, of Middleburg, Va., was handsomely gowned in a traveling costume of Copenhagen blue with lace and gloves to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The groom is a son of Mr. W. A. Jacob, of Richmond, and is associated in business with T. W. Wood & Son, a number of elegantly wedding presents were received from friends of the popular young people.

A wedding breakfast was served in the home of the bride's parents and congratulations were showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Jacob.

Mr. Powell, who has a most distinguished record as a musician, both here and abroad, is moreover an extremely popular personage in Richmond, and a necessary short visit to his sister, Mrs. Brockenbrough and Mrs. Williams, because of engagements for October in London, will be a matter of regret to many friends and admirers in his former home city.

His appearance at the club will be a brilliant event for the second Monday entertainment of the autumn, and the ladies deserve much credit for having secured such an attraction.

Both Mr. Hamilton Claiborne and his elder brother, Mr. Herbert Claiborne, have had a most delightful time with their uncle, Major Henry Coulter Cabell, who is on the general staff of the United States Army and who was their traveling companion through Yellowstone Park and many other places of interest in the West.

At best, housecleaning is a season of unrest.

But its miseries can be greatly minimized by the wise use of Ivory Soap—to give new beauty to furniture; to make rugs and curtains look as they did the day they were bought; to brighten silver and brass-work; to make blankets as soft and fluffy as when new.

TAKE UP THE STOMACH

Get Rid of the Gas, Headaches and Dizziness.

The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a ravenous appetite, some loathe the sight of food. Often there is a feeling as if weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. Sometimes the gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease. Sick headache is a frequent and distressing symptom.

A very delicate stomach requires easily digested food but nature never intended that the food should be digested before it is eaten. The stomach must be strengthened to perform its own work and what it needs is not food already digested but a tonic. The processes of digestion are controlled by the blood and nerves, and medical science has produced no better digestive tonic than

Your Druggist Says

Ask Your Druggist

The great army of American druggists are mighty intelligent and well-educated men.

They know the properties of drugs and medicines, and have experience with all kinds of troubles, which people come into the store to ask relief for.

So their practical knowledge is very valuable, and their advice is worth a great deal to all sick people.

If you know your druggist well enough to ask his advice for your female trouble, do so, and he will tell you that thousands of women have written letters, telling of relief obtained from taking Cardui.

In his experience, he has heard and read of many cases of female weakness, which have been relieved or cured by Cardui. So, when you ask his opinion, he will not offer a prescription, but will probably say: "Take Cardui." And you will do well to follow his advice.

Cardui is advised in all the common forms of womanly trouble, due to disorders peculiar to females.

It has been found to relieve or prevent headache, backache, side ache, dragging sensations, nervousness, irritability, irregularity, and general female weakness and misery.

Many thousands of sick ladies have been restored to health, by the use of Cardui, and have written to tell of the good it did them.

Cardui is composed of pure, vegetable ingredients—hence has no harmful effects, like many mineral compounds. It acts gently and naturally, is good for young and old, and should be in every lady's home, even if not an invalid, to take during her bad days.

What others, who have tried Cardui, say about it, should surely be of interest to you, as showing what you may expect it to do for you. Hence this letter from Mrs. Tempie Clark, of Timberville, Miss., one of the thousands who have written in similar strain, will, we hope, be read by you.

She says: "Cardui has been worth more to me than a carload of silver. If it had not been for Cardui, I would have been dead. I love a dollar, but I have never seen one that I think as much of, as I do of a bottle of Cardui. I now keep it in my house, as regularly as I do coal oil or coffee, and have done so for years."

"Some years ago, I jumped off a horse and had a mishap, and for about 4 years after that, I suffered intense agony, irregularities, bearing-down pains, etc. At last I was induced to try Cardui, which cured me, and now I am well and happy."

"I am sure that Cardui will cure other sick ladies as it has me."

Cardui is carried, as a standard remedy, on the shelves of all reliable drug stores. Your druggist will recommend it, and will gladly sell you a bottle, with full directions for use, on the inside of the wrapper.

If in doubt, ask him.
